BEN. BRAGG.

THE POLITICIAN.

Senator Quay's coming conference with Gov. McKinley bears out the statement repeatedly made by your correspondent that the rivalry for the Republican nomination, so far as the principals were concerned, was entirely friendly. Needless to say that Republicans generally are as much pleased to know that this conference is to take place as the Democrats are disappointed.
There is every reason for the belief that Senator Quay will be authorized to speak for Senator Allison and Speaker Reed. In this connection it may be well to recall a remark made when Congress first met by one of Gov.
McKinley's staunchest supporters. He said: "I believe that if Gov. McKinley is nominated he will ask Senator Quay to take the chairmanship of the National committee and manage his campaign." The same gentleman said this week that he thought Gov. McKinley had requested Senator Quay to come to Canton in order that he might ask him to manage his campaign.

Senator Sherman met Senator Gorman's amendment to the Fortification appropriation bill, providing for the issue of $100,000,000 in 3 per cent certificates of indebtedness, which he characterized as unexampled in the history of the government, with a strong plea for the passage of the Dingley emergency tariff bill, which would furnish the money needed by the government without adding a cent to the public debt and without burden to any of our people. Senator Gorman was merely making a gallery play, to emphasize his charge that the appropriations made at this session of Congress have been extravagant. He knew that his amendment would not be adopted or he never would have offered it. No appropriation is too extravagant to receive his support, provided that the money is to be spent for the benefit of his constituents, but he is always ready to cut down elsewhere.

It turns out that Mr. Terrell, our minister to Turkey, was not summoned to Washington to discuss Turkish affairs, but to answer serious charges against himself. He is charged with being low and gross in his habits and with habitually using profane and vulgar language in the presence of callers at the U. S. legation at Constantinople, and as though that was not enough he is charged with being utterly incompetent, by reason of his lack of familiarity with the usages of polite society, to protect American interests in Turkey. These charges are made by the American missionaries of all denominations, now in Turkey, and were originally sent to Washington by Rev. Henry O. Dwight, who failed to get an interview with either Mr. Cleveland or Secretary Olney on his first visit, being curtly informed at the State department that he could present his charges in writing and they would be filed. But he was too smart to be caught in that sort of a pigeon hole.

He went to New York and Boston for consultation with friends, and the result was a second visit to Washington, accompanied by a committee of such influential men that even before Mr. Dwight demanded a hearing for Mr. Dwight they were invited to lay the whole matter before Mr. Cleveland, and it was so done. Terrell has been asked to explain, and unless he can make it plain that he has been slandered his official head will fall.

Chairman Dingley, of the House Ways and Means committee, has made public a statement showing how that committee tried to increase the revenues of the government $40,000,000 a year by a temporary tariff bill and how its attempt was balked by lack of a Republican majority in the Senate.
The statement closes with these words:
"The committee on Ways and Means has investigated the workings of the reciprocity agreements made under the tariff act of 1890, and will present a report showing benefits of such reciprocity, and declaring (unanimously, as far as the Republicans are concerned) for a return to reciprocity and protection as soon as the people shall elect a Republican Senate and President to co-operate with a Republican House.
This seems to be all that is practicable until the Republicans secure the President as well as the Senate."

Representative Sulloway, of N. H., sent the following telegram this week, which is self-explanatory: "Caroline D. Mowatt, Manchester, N. H.,—I regret to inform you that Mr. Cleveland has vetoed the bill giving you a pension. In a Christian spirit and with a desire to create within him a spark of patriotism I wish for the remainder of his life he might receive such treatment and rations as our soldiers had at Andersonville. C. A. SULLOWAY."

Unless some unexpected hitch occurs the appropriation bills will all be out of the way before the end of the first week in June, and then adjournment will come.

Fighting in Crete.
ATHENS, May 23.—The situation in Crete is very serious and daily becomes more threatening. A detachment of Turkish troops at Yoxaris has been besieged by the Christian populace for two weeks, and in the fighting that has occurred 18 men have been killed.
It is a fight at Drazu ten men were killed. The success of the insurgents has caused a panic among the Turkish rural population, and large numbers are flocking into the towns for protection, fearing they would be massacred if they remained in their homes. Fifteen hundred Turkish men, women and children in the country about Retimo have taken refuge in that town.

An Ex-Mayor Indicted.
DUMQUE, Ia., May 23.—The grand jury Friday found two indictments charging ex-Mayor Peter Olinger with embezzlement and misconduct in office.
The indictments allege that he sold permits to peddlers, butchers, tinsmiths and others and pocketed the fees, and sold a team belonging to the city and withheld the proceeds.

Quay Refuses to Talk of His Visit.
BALTIMORE, Pa., May 23.—Senator Quay was seen at his home Friday afternoon shortly after his arrival from Ottawa and was asked to say a few words about his visit, but no amount of persuation could induce him to discuss it, though he seemed in a happy frame of mind and expressed the impression that he must have something to say later.

ROSE SMITH.

President Cleveland's secretary of the interior is, it is said, willing to accept the nomination for vice president. He was born in Newton, N. C., September 2, 1855; was educated by his father, Dr. H. H.
Smith; was admitted to the bar at Atlanta, Ga., when 17 years old, and at once began the practice of the profession. To rise his own words, "he preferred the practice of law to office, and never had a political office until he was appointed secretary of the interior by President Cleveland."

Blind and Winded as a Landlady.
LOCKLAND, O., May 23.—Lockland was visited by a heavy rain and win-dstorm. Trees were uprooted, fences and barns blown down, windows smashed. Mill creek is overflowing and is ruining growing crops. No one is reported to be injured.

Capital and Knowledge

Are both necessary to conduct a Clothing business successfully. Capital, that is, CASH to your credit in bank that can be used at a moment's notice to secure values from manufacturers that can be done ONLY with SPOT CASH. (Cash buying means large discounts which is the customer's benefit.) KNOWLEDGE is necessary so that in the selection of materials, only those known to be of the finest quality and to WEAR WELL and be of absolutely fast color, will be purchased. Every dollar's worth of goods received at our store is PAID FOR within ten days (which means a very great deal in discounts) and our buyers have an EXPERIENCE of thirty-five years (which means a very great deal in getting goods that will WEAR), both facts showing clearly how capital and knowledge are so directly connected with our business. We have every advantage, and are in position to quote you LOWEST CASH PRICES on Clothing and Gents' Furnishings. No trouble to show goods, so don't hesitate to come and see us even if you are not ready to buy. New goods coming in every day! I
